

29 March 1945.

SUBJECT: Agent "JEAN PIERRE".

TO : Commanding Officer, G-2 SSS, Hq Seventh Army.

1. Agent JEAN PIERRE was interrogated by me yesterday and today about his mission. His statements were identical in detail on both occasions and checked with the statement he had made to Lt. HOGUET four days earlier.
2. Agent stated he had not compromised the safe addresses given to him although the enemy used physical violence to extort them. This has been verified by the fact that Lt. MUECKE had visited all three safe houses given to agent; he found the inhabitants safe and unmolested. They stated they had never been questioned by enemy authorities.
3. Upon his return, agent requested to be sent home to PETIT PIERRE. He made no attempt at gaining information while staying with this organization.
4. Agent's story is consistent. He claims that he never changed the original story given by him right after his arrest. As he never admitted having worked for this organization, it is understandable that he was held for several weeks in the hope of gaining more information from him, or breaking him.
5. It appears that agent's statement is truthful, that he acted with utmost loyalty even in a desperate situation, and that he did not at any stage compromise with the enemy.
